

Coisa boa eu vi

I saw a good thing

Autor: Mestre Beçola

Coisa boa eu vi
Coisa boa eu vi

*I saw a good thing
I saw a good thing*

No quilombo dos Palmares
La na terra de Zumbi
Eu jogava Capoeira
Com o grupo Narahari

*At the Quilombo dos Palmares
There in the land of Zumbi
I played capoeira
With the group Narahari*

É Na é Ra é Ha é Ri
Vou jogar a Capoeira
Chamada Narahari

*It's Na it's Ra it's Ha it's Ri
I'm going to play capoeira
Called Narahari*

É Na é Ra é Ha é Ri
Vou jogar a Capoeira
Chamada Narahari

*It's Na it's Ra it's Ha it's Ri
I'm going to play capoeira
Called Narahari*

Capoeira Narahari
Capoeira Narahari
Capoeira Narahari
Capoeira Narahari Nara

*Capoeira Narahari
Capoeira Narahari
Capoeira Narahari
Capoeira Narahar iNara*

Narahari Capoeira
Narahari Capoeira
Narahari Capoeira
Narahari Nara

*Narahari Capoeira
Narahari Capoeira
Narahari Capoeira
Narahari Nara*

Narahari (Capoeira)
Narahari Sri Radha

*Narahari (Capoeira)
Narahari Narahari Sri Radha*

Narahari
Narahari Sri Radha

*Narahari Narahari Sri Radha
Narahari Narahari Sri Radha*

Narahari, also known as Lord Nṛsimhadeva, is the half-lion half-man form of Lord Krishna the Supreme Personality of Godhead, as described in Vedic Culture.

Sri Radha is short for Srimat Rādhārāṇī also known as Laksmi, the Goddess of fortune. She is Lord Nrsimhadeva's consort, the female form of God.

The word Vedic means knowledge.